

The Smart Works Virtual Service

Every day, Smart Works supports women back into employment through our free virtual service

Get an Appointment

Tell someone supporting your employment journey to refer you to the Smart Works virtual service via phone, online referral form, or email. We will call you to arrange your Smart Works appointment at a time which suits you best.

Dressing Session

Join the Zoom call at your chosen time to begin your session. Our friendly dressers will present options based on your wardrobe preferences. Once you have chosen your new outfit, it will be posted to you within 48-hours. Please don't worry if the items don't fit, you don't need to send them back! We will send another outfit to you free of charge.

Coaching Session

Next, get ready for your tailored interview coaching session, focused on how to present your best self to succeed at interview. On the day of the interview - feel ready to get the job with your brand new outfit and increased confidence!

After 2 hours with Smart Works

95%

of our clients feel more confident

69%

get the job within one month

“Despite the distance, they made me feel valued and understood. The process of choosing clothes virtually was seamless, and the next-day delivery ensured I was interview-ready in no time.”

Smart Works Client